TRANSPORT FOR LONDON

Direct coach services from London airports to Digbeth Coach Station are typically the best options in terms of convenience and price (£20-40). Tickets may be purchased from National Express (app, website, or at the coach terminals). Direct taxi services are available from Birmingham airport to the city centre. The journey time is approximately 30 minutes, with fees ranging from £15 to £30 depending on the carrier.

All London Underground (Tube) lines accept contactless payment (includes Apple Pay, Samsung Pay and Google Pay). Paper tickets with receipts can alternatively be purchased at London Underground station ticket machines.

National Rail services require a ticket, available for purchase at Trainline (app or website), or alternatively from any National Rail station ticket machine. National Rail services from London to Birmingham are available from either London Euston or London Marylebone. If one station is affected by significant delays, cancellations, or rail strikes, then travel from the other.

 National Rail services from Birmingham International to New Street are operated by Avanti West Coast, London Northwestern Railway (LNR), West Midlands Railway (WMR), CrossCountry or Transport for Wales. Ensure that the train service operator matches the operator detailed on your ticket ('any permitted route' allows for any operator). You can book via the WMR app to avoid the Trainline booking fee.
